Lake Champlain Maritime Museum was an incredibly important cornerstone in my childhood and shaped who I am today. I feel grateful to have spent so much time immersed in an environment dedicated to celebrating and deepening our relationship with history and the natural world.

Champlain Discover participant, age 15
EDUCATION

CONNECTING OVER 2522 ELEMENTARY STUDENTS
with valuable history and ecology experiences through hands-on programming with our talented museum educators.

TEAMWORK

ROWING CLUBS IN 9 REGIONAL SCHOOLS
More than 600 high school students in 9 regional high school rowing clubs practice and compete in our traditional Longboat gigs built by students.

STEWARDSHIP

DEEPER KNOWLEDGE OF LAKE CHAMPLAIN
Staff of the Maritime Research Institute led graduate students in 3 weeks of archaeological field school for credit. 20 years in managing historic dive preserve sites in Lake Champlain.

---

2017 Revenue

- Earned Revenue: 60%
- Gifts & Grants: 23%
- Interest from Endowment: 12%
- Archaeology Contracts: 5%

2017 Expense

- Administration: 17%
- Mission-Driven Programs: 9%
- Fundraising: 7%
- Maritime Research Institute: 67%

---

COMMUNITY

EXPANDING REACH
with content-rich multimedia exhibits traveling around the region from Burlington, VT to Hartford, CT and across New York State.

SERVICE

SERVING SPECIAL NEEDS STUDENTS
for 19 years with our semester-long Champlain Longboats curriculum, providing life-changing hands-on education.

EMPOWERMENT

AT SUMMER CAMP
Our 2017 summer camps provided over 1200 kids lake adventures including snorkeling, archaeology, paddling ecology, robotics engineering, kayak building, bronze casting, and lake exploration.