Pt III, Line 1a: "Prior to 2021, the Museum capitalized its historical artifacts and other "collections" items - all of which had been received through donation - at their estimated fair value at the time of donation and depreciated them over forty year lives. These items are held for educational, research and public exhibition, in furtherance of public service and not for financial gain. In 2021, the Museum adopted specific collections management policies that met newly updated accounting standards allowing museums and similar institutions to forego capitalizing their collections. Specifically, the Museum's policies require that its collections are "protected, kept unencumbered, cared for, and preserved" and are "subject to an organizational policy that requires the use of proceeds from their sale to be used for acquisition of new collection items, the direct care of existing collections, or both." This "change in accounting principle" to remove collections from the Museum's Statement of Financial Position has been applied retroactively to the 2020 financial statements included herein - meaning that amounts in those financial statements have been adjusted to 1) remove the balances of its collections from the Statement of Financial Position and 2) make changes for the related effects on depreciation and the gain or loss on the disposition of fixed assets on the Statement of Activities, Statement of Functional Expenses and Statement of Cash Flows. These effects include 1) a decrease in net assets without donor restrictions at January 1, 2020 of $225,950, 2) a decrease in the cost basis of fixed assets of $381,273 and a decrease in accumulated depreciation of $175,198 as of December 31, 2020, 3) an increase in the change in net assets for 2020 (from effects on depreciation and gains or losses from the disposition of fixed assets) of $19,875 and 4) a decrease in net assets without donor restrictions as of December 31, 2020 of $206,075."

Pt III, Line 4: The Organization holds artwork, artifacts, boats and related items for both public exhibition and research activities in furtherance of its tax-exempt purpose.

Pt V, Line 4: Income from the Organization's permanent endowment is available for operations with portions restricted to specific educational and other activities.
